

Joseph de Weck

Senior Fellow - Germany

Joseph de Weck is the Europe director at Greenmantle, a macroeconomic and geopolitical risk consultancy.

A columnist for the German foreign affairs magazine *Internationale Politik Quarterly, he is a regular contributor to publications such as Der Spiegel and The Atlantic. In 2021, he published Emmanuel Macron: Der revolutionäre Präsident, a German-language essay on Macron's first term and portrait for French society.

Joseph is also a fellow with the Philadelphia-based Foreign Policy Research Institute. He holds a BSc from the London School of Economics and a MA from Sciences Po Paris and the University of St Gallen

Areas of expertise

Politics and governance in Germany

- German government policy: foreign policy, economic and trade policy, security, defense, etc.
- German political system: constructive vote of no confidence, budget reforms, coalitions, multi-party governance.
- Political crises and internal challenges: political instability, rise of extremes, impact on the EU.
- Compromise in German politics: government partnerships, inter-party negotiations.

Franco-German relations and the European Union

- The Franco-German relationship: cooperation, tensions, European leadership.
- European issues: European elections, EU governance, common economic policies.
- Comparative analysis of the French and German models.

Recent publications

 Publication overview

Franco-German Couple: Duo-Duel at the Helm of the European Union (2024)

Is It 1981 All Over Again? (2022)

Languages

- French
- English
- German

Press contacts

Nicolas MASSON, Project officer - communications and press relations

Donna CLEMENT, Head of communications and press relations

Email: press@institutmontaigne.org

Phone: +33 1 53 89 05 70

About Institut Montaigne:

institutmontaigne.org/en/about-us

